

20° Scientific Meeting Online
COVID - 19 and Rare Diseases
March 11, 2021 (h 15.00 – 16.30 CET)
Istituto Superiore di Sanità (Rome, Italy)
Aula Pocchiari

The webinar will be in English

Introduction and Chairs

Silvio Brusaferro, President of the Istituto Superiore di Sanità (ISS)

Luigi Bertinato, Head of the Scientific Secretariat to the President ISS

Annalisa Scopinaro, President of UNIAMO Federazione Italiana Malattie Rare

Domenica Taruscio, Director of the National Centre for Rare Diseases, ISS

The commitment of the Istituto Superiore di Sanità to support the public health response to COVID-19 in the Mediterranean and Sahel

Giulia De Ponte, National Center for Global Health, Istituto Superiore di Sanità

COVID-19 and rare diseases: the experience of clinicians and patients in Baharein

Cristina Skrypnik, Assistant Professor, Al-Jawhara Centre for Molecular Medicine, Arabian Gulf University, Kingdom of Bahrain

COVID-19 and rare diseases: the experiences of clinicians and patients in Turkey

Uğur Özbek, Professor, Department of Medical Genetics School of Medicine and ACURARE-Center for Rare Diseases, Acibadem University, Istanbul, Turkey

Discussion and conclusions

Domenica Taruscio, Director of the National Centre for Rare Diseases, ISS

Link to participate to the event: <https://live.starleaf.com/OTUwMTMyNzI6ODYzMjky>

If you wish to ask a question to speakers send a e-mail to: gacovid.rare@iss.it